Legal Issues in Jails

February 25-27, 2020 Chesapeake, Virginia
Hosted by: Naval Consolidated Brig Chesapeake

This three-day workshop addresses the key legal issues that jails confront every day. Also discussed are the Supreme Court decisions of the last 12 months, which are explained with an emphasis on how they affect jail management. Participants are educated on what they need to know in order to reduce litigation in their facility. Learn how you can protect yourself and your facility.

Topic Highlights
- Examine the standards as set out by the U.S. Supreme Court to develop institutional policies and procedures that address inmate rights under the 1st, 4th, 8th, and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution including:
  - Freedom of speech.
  - Free exercise of religion.
  - Access to courts and counsel.
  - Search and seizure.
  - Medical and mental healthcare.
  - Duty to protect.
  - Conditions of confinement.
  - Use of force.
- Analyze and apply the latest Federal legislation to assess institutional policies and procedures (e.g., ADAII, PLRA; PREA, RLUIPA).
- Develop practical strategies to protect your agency from civil liability.
- Apply effective methods to respond in a proactive manner to legal issues in jails.

Who Should Attend?
Sheriffs, jail administrators, command staff, legal counsel, detention, and training personnel.

Training Location
Naval Consolidated Brig Chesapeake
1548 Wilderness Road
Chesapeake, VA 23322

Program Cost
Members: $445 | Nonmembers: $495
Program fee includes all training materials. Lodging and meals are the responsibility of the attendee.
(Register by December 25, 2019 and you will receive an early registration discount of $100)

Instructors
Carrie Hill has dedicated her 29-year career to providing professional development seminars in correctional law, along with criminal justice consulting, to educate and empower those working in the correctional industry. Carrie currently serves as the Director of the National Center of Jail Operations for the National Sheriffs’ Associations.

Gerard Horgan, CIM, retired as Superintendent of Jail Operations/Special Sheriff at the Norfolk Sheriff’s Office in Dedham, Massachusetts, where he oversaw the daily operation of the facility. Gerard was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1994. For the past 10 years, he has been Adjunct Professor at the University of Massachusetts Boston where he teaches in corrections and criminal justice.

For more information, visit aja.org or contact Lori Bachtell at 301-790-3930, Ext. 303.