

A Prayer from Chaplain Hosea Cannon, Jr.

My friends, these are unprecedented times. For you, your families, and your coworkers, I am offering a simple prayer that God will keep us and protect us during this time.

“Father God,

I ask that you would keep my brothers and sisters. I pray that you would put a hedge of protection around them. Lord, this pandemic, this disease, this pestilence is like nothing that we’ve ever seen in our lifetime; we don’t know if it’s man-made or God-made but we do know who is in control.

Therefore, I ask that you would protect them and that you would keep them. And not only them, but keep their families and their coworkers that this thing, that this pandemic, that this disease, that this pestilence, will not come near them nor their families nor any of their coworkers. And Father, if it has come close them, I pray that You would heal all of those who have been infected. I pray that You will heal them absolutely and completely—from the top of their heads to the soles of their feet. Lord keep them and hold them in the hollow of Your hand in Jesus name, I pray.

Amen.”

“I will say to the Lord, ‘My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.’ For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.” — Psalms 91:2–7 ESV

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
