Preventing Jail Suicide: The Basics Are No Longer Enough

Instructor: Dr. Lisa Boesky, Psychologist & Jail Suicide Expert

Despite using multiple strategies to prevent inmates from killing themselves, Suicide remains the leading cause of death in jails. Jails must tweak and improve current practices to truly keep individuals from dying by suicide in their facilities. Learn 10 ways (most at no cost) to modify your jail’s existing suicide prevention practices to be more “clinically effective” and “liability protected.” Discover where your facility’s policies and procedures require updating to avoid a tragic death and large lawsuit.
