Standards of Care: Mental Health Care in Our Jails... Now What?

Instructor: James Martin MPSA, CCHP

Jails have become the largest mental health facilities across the nation. During this training, attendees are provided with legal context for care in correctional facilities and discuss challenges to providing mental healthcare in a correctional environment. Also discussed are the factors of a jail environment and what to consider when planning for mental health services with NCCHC standards of care.